Department of Pathology

Ramaiah Medical College, Bengaluru

Cordially invite you to the

CME on MOLECULAR PATHOLOGY

Saturday, 23rd February 2019

9 am to 5.00 pm

Venue: COUNCIL HALL
Ground Floor, Ramaiah Medical College

Dear Friends,

Hearty New Year greetings from Department of Pathology, Ramaiah Medical College, Bengaluru.

Pathology is growing in all sectors of the diagnostics from conventional methods to advanced diagnostics. With the advent of molecular diagnostics, the practice of laboratory medicine has revolutionized the evidence based medicine in clinical practice. Given the Molecular complexity and heterogeneity of tumours, a sound understanding of Molecular Pathology is essential to provide relevant and appropriate treatment.

An interesting academic session with special reference to basic principles of Molecular Pathology and its clinical applications has been designed for consultants and postgraduates. Eminent faculty in the field of Molecular Pathology shall address the gathering.

We cordially invite you to this interesting academic session.

Looking forward for your active participation.

With regards,
The organizing Team,
